

This Week's D6 Family Theme: Judgment

The phrase "practice what you preach" may be cliché, but it is certainly true. If we claim to live a certain way, we need to truly live that way. It is easy to point out the mistakes and flaws of others, but God wants us to pay attention to our own heart and leave the judging to Him. The 2014 Winter Olympics will take place in a few weeks. Remind your children that in events like figure skating, it is judges that determine the winners. In a crowd of thousands in the arena, and millions watching on TV, the judges' opinions are the only ones that count. In the same way, we all have one Judge. His opinion is the only one that matters and He has said the only way we can measure up is through Christ. Let's focus on walking with Jesus and not try to do God's job for Him.

What Christmas is all About

Christmas will always be for us,
 A time to reflect on Christ,
 The gift God gave to the world,
 Was the gift of His life.
 We know Christmas is not about tinsel,
 Nor fancy Christmas wreaths,
 Nor is it about all the decorations,
 That adorns our Christmas trees.
 And its not about Holly and Mistletoe,
 Hanging from our doors,
 Nor is it about the gifts that are left,
 By the jolly Santa Claus.
 Christmas is more than all of this,
 And the only reason why,
 We celebrate Christ birth together,
 And the wonder of His life.
 So remember as you celebrate,
 Just what its all about,
 And invite the Lord to join with you,
 Instead of leaving Him out.
 For He will always be the reason,
 We celebrate this day,
 No substitute the world can offer,
 Can take that meaning away.
