

This Week's D6 Family Theme: Spiritual Warfare

Because we can't see spiritual warfare, we often forget it is taking place. It is important to keep in mind that there are battles beyond what we can see. To illustrate this principle to your children, have your spouse go in to another room and call you on your cell phone. Put your phone on speaker, and hold a brief conversation with him or her. Explain to your children that you can't see the sound waves going through the air, but you can still hear what the other person is saying. Though we can't see what's going on in the in the spiritual world, it still affects us.
