

This Week's D6 Family Theme: Son of God

Sometimes, amidst the hustle and bustle of the Christmas season, it is easy to forget what Christmas is truly about: The Son of God left Heaven and came to earth as a tiny, helpless baby, so that one day He might die for our sins and restore the relationship between God and man that had been so mangled by sin. Try to instill the importance of Christ's incarnation in the minds and hearts of your family members. Perhaps your kids can donate toys to a shelter, or your family can volunteer at a soup kitchen on Christmas afternoon. Whatever you do, be sure to relate it to Christ's selflessness in giving up Heaven for a time to come to earth for us.
