

This Week's D6 Family Theme: Christian Liberty

We should not allow the freedom of what we have in Christ to allow us to do things that offend new Christians. We need to put the spiritual welfare of other before our own convenience. We as humans are naturally selfish. Sometimes, it is quite difficult to be unselfish. Read and discuss a book about unselfishness this week. Visit your library if you do not have any books on the topic at home. (Look for Christian books, or other titles such as The Berenstain Bears.) Encourage your family to look for ways to be unselfish each day-that's practicing Christian liberty.
