

This Week's D6 Family Theme: Judgment

In Matthew 13, Jesus gives the parable of the man who planted a field, and whose enemy planted weeds in the field at night. When the harvest came, the man had the weeds bundled and burned. Those who love and serve Christ are like the healthy crop. Those who reject Him are like the weeds, and will one day face punishment.

Plant a small garden with your child. Allow him or her to pick out a few flowers or herbs that he or she likes. Help your child tend to the plants by watering them, making sure they get enough sunlight, and keeping the weeds away. Remind your child to be like the plant: healthy and growing in his or her faith in Christ.

MISSIONS 1935-2014

We are celebrating 79 years of Free Will Baptist International Missions! Can you believe the mission movement within our denomination started by a young lady in 1935 by the name of Laura Belle Barnard? With only $85 in her pocket, she traveled to India to start several humanitarian and educational projects. She worked mostly with the "untouchables," the lowest class in the Hindu Caste System. From this meager beginning, grew a tremendous work to bring salvation, health and education to the people of the world, which is continuing through today. On Sunday, March 30th, we will be taking up a special offering for our missionaries throughout the world.

Special Speaker

On Sunday, March 23rd Brother Jeff Bennett will be speaking during the morning service. We will also have a guest singer, Regina Brown from the Bethel Free Will Baptist Church. Inviter your friends, neighbors, and family to come and worship the Lord together.
