

This Week's D6 Family Theme: Abiding in Christ

Go to a park and take a walk or a hike with your family. Take special notice of the trees and tree branches. As you walk, discuss how the healthy branches are full of leaves or flowers. They are hearty, and well connected to the tree. Explain that that is how our life in Christ should be. We should be well connected to Him and living a life that bears witness to His name through our actions, speech, and attitudes.

Memorial Day 2014

This weekend is Memorial Day weekend. It's the start of the Summer season, For some folks, it's a time to travel and visit friends and family, or just take that much needed break from work and go to the beach. But for some, it's a time to reflect on family or friends that have gone on to be with the Lord. For our service men and women in uniform, this day holds a special place in our hearts. Not since the 1970's has there been a draft. So everyone that has served since then has volunteered to protect this country, and our way of life. So this week I ask you to take a few moments and pray for our service men and women, of today, and of the past. And if you love and enjoy the freedoms that we have, seek out and find a veteran or active duty member of the armed services and thank him or her for their service.

Remembering our fallen

When he spoke at a ceremony at Gettysburg in 1863, President Lincoln reminded us that through their deeds, the dead had spoken more eloquently for themselves than any of the living ever could, and that we living could only honor them by re-dedicating ourselves to the cause for which they so willingly gave a last full measure of devotion.
