

This Week's D6 Family Theme: Suffering

One way to prepare your child to deal with suffering is to look at the biblical ways other Christians responded to hard circumstances. Make it a habit to look at your church's prayer list with your child. Go through the list and explain what each family or individual is facing. Write cards to those who have lost loved ones, bake cookies for a shut-in and visit people in the hospital. Read James 1:2-4 to your child and remind him or her that God can work through every circumstance, even suffering.

Remembering 9/11

How can we ever forget the day those planes crashed into our buildings? Killing thousands of innocent people, injuring thousands more. Today marks the 10th Anniversary of that tragic event. As we take a moment to remember the lives lost, the families broken, the children orphaned, and the direct blow to the freedom we Americans hold dear. Take comfort in knowing that the Lord is in control of all things.

*Isaiah 49:16-17 reads
 Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.*

Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.

This scripture reveals the eternal security of the salvation of God's people. God has graven us in the palms of his hands, not just our names, but all that we are. Our great God thinks as much of you who are His, and focuses His attention as fully and completely upon you as if there were nothing and no one else in the universe but you and Him. We have with God an Eternal, Indissoluble union. A union of Grace, a union of His making. Our God's remembrance of us is constant. Everything that is in God's hand is for His people. Everything He touches is for us! Everything He does, He does for us! May God Bless America.

*"If Jesus is ours, we have a true friend,
 Whose goodness endures the same to the end;*

Our comforts may vary, our frames may decline;

(But) we cannot miscarry, our aid is Divine.

The hills may depart and the mountains remove,

But faithful Thou Art, O fountain of love!

The father has graven our names on Thy hands;

Our record in Heaven eternally stands!"
